Following a break from the live circuit to concentrate on numerous tv projects, Dave Spikey is back on the road with a new show mixing stand-up and Q&A.

A regular feature on our tv screens, he's recently appeared on 'Parkinson', joined a star-studded line-up on the 'The Royal Variety Performance', hosted thirty episodes of classic gameshow 'Bullseye', appeared as team captain on four series of Ch 4's '8 Out of 10 Cats', been a judge on BBC 1's variety talent show 'When Will I Be Famous?' and won 'Celebrity Mastermind'. He also found the time to write and star in ITV's 'Dead Man Weds' and BBC 1's 'Magnolia'.

Don't miss the opportunity to catch the legendary Dave Spikey in this intimate new show which takes in only a limited number of select venues this autumn.

So come along, have a laugh, and ask Dave all manner of burning questions about this business we call show. It's your chance to ask any question...anything from the urbane to the inane to the insane...

"Sell your first born for one ticket to see Dave Spikey...absolute quality"
